

I am concerned about the loss of my favorite radio station if you allow the LPFM stations to take priority over current FM translator service. If K-LOVE's signal is interrupted, there will not be a similar type station to take it's place. It provides the only music of its type in this area. My friends and I consider it part of our community and not as a national station. Please do not take away our station.